

STATE ESSA CONTACTS

Staying in touch with your SEA about the ESSA transition is important, so we did some of the leg work for you. We found state ESSA web hubs if they had them (hint- bookmark your page, use it to sign up for state updates, or see what participation opportunities are out there!). Then we called up each SEA and asked who authorizers should contact if they have questions about the ESSA transition.

It is our hope that these contacts remain accurate, but if one of these is a dead end please let us know so we can keep this list up-to-date for the authorizers in your state.
